By Nancy Salwen (4/22/21) (in B — G Shape Capo 4)
G C G
Sur prised again that some one like me gets in vite d back each day for free
D G
to this glor ious sun rise this show in the sky We are so luck y-y you and l
D G
L uck y and glad to be al ive
G C G
$\underline{\text{When}} \text{ the } \underline{\text{wind}} \text{ blows and } \underline{\text{shakes}} \text{ the } \underline{\text{leaves}} \text{ the } \underline{\text{dance}} \text{ of the } \underline{\text{breeze}} \text{ the } \underline{\text{song}} \text{ of the } \underline{\text{trees}}$
D G
We hear the breathing of the sky We are so lucky-y you and I
D G
So luck y and glad to be al ive
G C G
When we're young we're full of ideas of how life will handle our joys and our fears
D G
Some times it's a struggle to op en our eyes But we are so lucky-y you and l
L uck y and glad to be al ive
G C G
When life is rough when you get burned do what you can to enjoy your turn
D G
in the cold of De cem ber in the warmth of Ju ly We are so luck y-y you and l D G
L uck y and glad to be al ive

Lucky